

Anitha James
Assistant Professor
Qualification : M.A.,M.Phil.,(Ph.D.)
anithaeng@srcw.ac.in

Areas of Interest

Drama, Poetry, Short story, Fiction, Greek Mythology, and Children Literature

Educational Profile

Anitha James is an Assistant Professor of English at Sri Ramakrishna College of Arts & Science for Women, possessing over 5 years of teaching experience. She is pursuing her Ph.D. in Caribbean Literature from Sri Meenakshi Government College for Women, Madurai. She has completed her M.Phil. Master's and Bachelor's degree in English Literature from Lady Dock, Madurai.

Courses Handled

- British Drama
- Intensive Study of an Author
- British Prose
- Indian Literature in English
- American Literature
- Communicative English
- Value Education
- Women's Rights

Teaching Experience

- 5 Years

Academic Responsibilities

- Criteria 5 ( Department level Co-ordinator)

Specialization

- Indian Writing in English and Creative Writing

Paper Presentation

- Presented a paper at State Level in Thiagarajar Arts and Science College, Madurai

Publication

- Published a paper in Scopus entitled "An Epithet of Multiculturalism in Amy Tan's The Joy Luck Club"